STATES.

In appointing an Agent for the United States, the Company has empowered him "to appear to and accept any action or legal proceedings instituted against or by said Company, in the same manner as if the Company were a Corporation or Company established by the laws of the United States, or any of the several States." PROVISION FOR PAYMENT OF LOSSES IN THE UNITED STATES.

A SPECIAL PERMANENT FUND HAS BEEN PLACED AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE AGENT AT PHILADELPHIA, TO ENABLE HIM TO ADJUST AND PROMPTLY PAY ALL Losses, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO LONDON. LIBERAL TO THE INSURED.

The uniform course of the Company has always been a liberal one towards Policy Holders. No just claim has ever been disputed, and prompt payment of losses is a standing rule. During the past year, losses exceeding $525,000 were paid. Losses paid as soon as the amount is ascertained. ANNUAL INCOME.

The Income of the Company is now about $1, 000,000, increasing gradually each year, showing that it has the confidence of the different communities in which business is done. RATE OF PREMIUM. The Rate of Premium will be moderate, and in all cases will be based upon the character of the owner or occupant, and the merits of the risk. The conditions of Insurance are framed with the greatest liberality.

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charge by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE.

This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Jompany a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: James T. Close. Thomas T. Hill, R. H. Carter, Wm. Wright, R. F. Lester, P. D. Lipscomb. Ben. F. Nalle, Sarepta Hall. | Silas Biglow, George E. French, W. M. Turner, Wm. C. Knight. A. R. Blakey, OFFICERS:

MISCELLANEOUS READING. FOR THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE. MEMORIES!

The memories of the past! How sweet they linger round the drooping heart, And call the last Fond words of those from whom when called to part It crushed the soul, Burst up the crystal fountain of our tears,

And, cruel, dashed the golden hopes of years With bitter sorrow and a weight of fears Beyond control. Have friends been young And guileless, hearts all pure and warm, o'er which

Our tancy hung, And loved in tender joy to paint in rich, Bright colors, all Their future life, to fill brim full of love Around, and swiftly answer from above,

Their spirit's call; Or have they been, In prime of life, and with firm grasp, seized hold Of Time's rough wing, As he flew by, while with him madly rolled Ambition's car;

On which, high mounted, they pressed hotly down, Opposing forces, striving for a crown Of lettered fame, or else perchance to sound In deeds of war; Or does some sweet,

Sad face, come up in nightly dreams, and those Dark eyes will meet Our own, as in days olden, when the rose The trellis climbed, And we sat there beneath, and loved to tell

How bright dew-diamonds shone, or felt the spell Of twinkling stars-listened to matin bell, Or evening chime. Oh! gentle one, How did I love to linger by thy side, The day's work done,

And hear thy sweet lips call me in their pride, "My Brother dear!" Loved sister, when thy blue eyes lost their light When thy life's flower felt Death's suddening blight, How sunk my sun in depths of sorrow's night! Oh, Ella dear!

And thus another Whose form is with me every day and hour, My precious Brother! My very soul is his, no earthly power Can quench our love, For we are knit like Jonathan of old To Israel's king, so close as did enfold The two in one; such are the depths untold Of Willie's love.

Or, do I watch The glistening tear drop, that so long ago I used to catch, Soft falling o'er that sweet, pale face, and slow Trace o'er the cheek. And soon our Mary pointing to the sky, To the blue Heaven she raised her tear-dimmed eye,

And whispered, there's the land for which I sigh, The home I seek! Now, some old pair Totter to Death's dark portals while I gazo,

Like shocks full ripe for glory; till time shall raise

And wait them there

That murky veil, That ever shuts us from the dread unknown, And makes us cowards as we hear the groan Of some poor soul, who tells with hollow tone, His last sad tale. Then comes the thought, the weak. And her who sought A home above-that gray haired pair. Oh! speak To me, and tell If ve will still watch o'er me, lest I fall,

And will your spirits hear me when I call, Bring me the heavenly hope, the joy, that all At last is well. INGOMAR. EXTRAORDINARY SHOOTING.

Another American Champion .- The St. Louis Bulletin, of May 7, has an account of the various exploits of a sharp-shooter in that city, and thus relates one of them: "Mr. Whitehoad first made a few shots at a target with rifle and ball, boring a hole directly through the centre every time. He then stationed a man at the distance of ten paces and shot at a half-dollar, which the person held between the thumb and finger of his hand, hitting the piece in the centre and knocking it out two or three times. The crowning feature of the performance was, however, to come. Mr. T. F. Lennox stationed himself at a distance of ten paces, and placed a common sized lemon on the top of his head .-Whitehead took a pistol and aimed at the fruit-The ball entered fairly in the centre and cut the lemon in two. We would not forget that Mr. Lennox, on whose head the lemon was, stood with arms folded and coolly smoked his pipe. Had he moved an inch, or had the skill of Whitehead failed, his soul would have been sent instantly to eternity. We scarcely know whom to admire the nost, Lennox for his intrepidity, or the marksman for his skill. We think Mr. Fred. Whitehead is will claim it."
